Live Wires Meet

The Live Wire Class of the Lomita Sunday school met in the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ella B. Miller of Oak street, Monday evening. The meeting was called to order by the president and opened with prayer. It was unanimously adopted that each member contribute 35c next Sunday to raise money to purchase a Christian Flag. Those present were Neil Blaine, Geo. Schmidt, Dawson Trotman, Preston Roberts, E. E. Miller and Mrs. E. B. Miller, etc.

FACE SERIOUS SHORTAGE

A famous French statistician reported to the French Parliament that 8,591,437 men died in the war between August 2, 1914, and November 11, 1918.

New Home Going Up

J. H. Zerres has completed the exterior work of his new home on E. Chestnut street and is now ready for the first coat of paint.

Comedy Company Honored

A number of the members of the Lomita Comedy Company were honored guests of the Thistle Club of Long Beach, and later were invited to assist in the program both in the afternoon and evening at the Long Beach Industrial Exposition, Saturday. Mrs. Thos. Willacy of Beacon street, John G. Wilson of Narbonne Ave., and Jas. McDougall, sang in the afternoon, while Wm. McDougall gave a reading in the evening. All numbers were much appreciated by the audience and they loudly enquired.

GROCERY STORE SOLD

H. D. Maden of El Segundo, formerly of Los Angeles, has purchased the grocery store and filling station of W. M. Willis on North Narbonne Ave. Mr. Willis will give possession the latter part of the week and will temporarily locate in Long Beach. He has an option on property near there and expects to enter the retail business again.

Friends! Citizens! and Fellow Countrymen! Lend Me Your Ears!

—If you are waiting for prices to reach bed-rock bottom on men's Clothes—wait no longer!

—The new prices on Royal Tailored Spring Clothes are again down to 1914 levels.

—And remember this: Every Royal garment is purest all-wool—made to measure—made by the best tailor men.

—If the saving of $10 to $20 on your new spring suit is worth a ten-minute trip to this store, we'll be delighted to demonstrate.

GROCERY IN SOUTH LOMITA

Geo. W. Brooksby of Redondo Boulevard will open a grocery store at the corner of Narbonne and the Boulevard just as soon as his building is completed, which is rapidly going up. A lease was secured from L. Rosok of Bisbee, Arizona, owner of the property, and he expects to build up a big business in the South part of Lomita. The stock of goods will consist of groceries, confectionery and tobaccos. Mr. Brooksby was for a number of years engaged in the mercantile business in Pittsburg but was forced to come to California on account of failing health.

Find Diamond and $20 In Money

Jesse Johnson of Harbor City spilled a black bag as it fell from a Sedan just in front of him as he drove down Broadway last Saturday and when he examined it found a $20 bill, diamond ring and numerous toilette articles. Mr. Johnson tried to overtake the Sedan but lost out in the traffic. Then he advertised in the daily papers, but to date no one has appeared to identify the articles.

Feast On Buffalo Meat

J. H. Zerres and mother of E. Chestnut street were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. Zerres' sister-in-law, Mrs. R. E. Edwards of 253 street, Los Angeles. A rare treat was given the guests at lunch when Buffalo meat was served. The bison were killed on the island in Salt Lake and brought to the museum at Exposition Park in Los Angeles.

Clean-Up Day For Lomita

It has been suggested that a campaign be started by either the Lomita Parent-Teacher Association or the Business Men's Association for a clean-up day in Lomita. There are plenty of vacant lots, gardens, corrals, etc. that need attention.
